

Communication Intern, Berlin

Büro Ole Scheeren is seeking a highly motivated and creative student for an Internship in Communications and PR. We are looking for a candidate with knowledge of and passion for design and architecture, excellent communication skills and organizational talent.

Minimum requirements:

- Enrollment in a degree program for communication, graphic design or related fields
- Strong research and analytical skills
- Graphic design skills
- Capable of multi-tasking
- Fluency in spoken and written English
- Internship is integrated into the candidate's degree as a compulsory component of the study program (mandatory internship)

Duration of the internship is based on university regulations. Successful candidates will receive a monthly stipend.

If this prospect excites you, please email your CV, covering letter and portfolio (in PDF format less than 10MB, no web links please) to employment@buro-os.com, quoting 'Communication Internship – Berlin' in the subject line of your e-mail.